

A photograph of the Taj Pamodzi Lusaka hotel building at dusk. The building is a multi-story structure with a white facade and a prominent vertical section of dark, perforated metal cladding. Numerous balconies with dark railings are visible, many of which are illuminated from within, casting a warm glow. The ground floor features large glass windows and a covered entrance area. The building is surrounded by lush greenery, including trees and manicured lawns. The sky is a deep blue, suggesting twilight.
